Great Gifts to Give or Receive

Top Picks

Harry's Dive Shop Gift Certificates: Always a great idea. Or if you prefer to give a tangible item, know that our policy is that when buying a gift for someone, it is totally exchangeable or refundable.

Give the Gift of Learning: Give a gift certificate specifically for one of our learn-to-dive or continuing diver education courses.

Give the Gift of Travel: Buy a gift certificate or put money down on the trip(s) of your choice and wrap it up with the trip sheet to be opened. You'll *Wow! your loved ones with this gift.

Upgrade Your Mask, Snorkel and Fins: We have state-of-the-art masks, snorkels and fins from a variety of manufacturers. The latest masks combine an ultra-low volume with a wide field of vision and a super fit. And, if you are still struggling with paddle fins, check out the Scubapro Seawing Nova and Atomic Split Fins.

Get a New Total Diving System: Harry's offers the latest regulators from Scubapro, Aqualung and Atomic. We have recreational BCs from Scubapro and SeaQuest, plus tech harnesses and air cells from Halcyon. Now is the time to quit renting and start diving equipment that is always familiar and always fits.

Join the Computer Age: Dive computers have become like masks, snorkels and fins — essential personal equipment no diver can be without. And, they are more feature-rich and affordable than ever.

The Ultimate Travel Package: How about a complete set of dive equipment in a bag with a total weight of just 17 pounds, ready to get on the airplane and go? Doesn't that sound great? Bag includes mask, snorkel, fins, BC, wetsuit, regulator with octopus and dive computer.

Underwater Imaging Made Affordable: Ikelite camera and housing package for stills (under $400) and video (under $500).
