Styled after the Tahitian cottages on the Polynesian island Bora Bora, cabanas are built by craftsmen utilizing the same skill, techniques and materials. Ramon's is not a concrete condo encompassed by concrete parking lots; it's a sanctuary nestled in tropical gardens of royal palms, bougainvillea, lilies, hibiscus and dozens of other tropical flora and fauna. Surrounding the plant life are Mayan sculptures providing a glimpse of civilizations preceding us in this Caribbean Paradise. Once inside our enchanted village, you'll be in a world of your own choosing.

 We cannot guarantee you a roommate yet will make every effort to do so if requested. *****
